

Research and draw some of the foods grown in Scotland.

Design and create a way to measure rainfall.

Measure rainfall over the course of a week and record your findings.

Write an explanation as to why Spring is a good time to begin planting seeds and crops.

Go on a minibeast hunt in the garden and create a block diagram of my findings.

Research facts about minibeasts using the Internet.

Use the Internet to find images of minibeasts to include in a fact file.

Build a minibeast habitat in the garden using natural materials.

Create a collage of a minibeast garden scene.

Make a 3D minibeast model from playdough.

Colour these minibeast pictures using different media.

Learn 'The Minibeasts Came in Two by Two' song.

Explore objects at home that can recreate garden sounds.

For use with the Twinkl Original The Cautious Caterpillar

Skills developed in this grid include:

- fine motor skills
- talking and listening
- communication
- independent writing
- problem solving
- emotional literacy

Write a recount of The Cautious Caterpillar in my own words.

Read about minibeasts using these information cards, appropriate non-fiction books or the Internet.

Make notes about what I have learned about minibeasts.

Create a minibeast factfile.

Write down the thoughts and feelings of some of the characters in the story.

Write about my feelings about growing up. What am I most looking forward to? Is there anything I'm worried about?

Find out about the life cycle of a butterfly. Sequence and write about the life cycle of a butterfly.